Dear Parents and Caregivers

On Friday we farewell Emma Tillman as she has a well-deserved break before the birth of her baby. Emma has been a member of the Tipu teaching team since the beginning of last year. We have truly appreciated her dedication to the needs, both social and academic, of all the children in our team. Emma has embraced her teaching role at Ashgrove and her thorough, conscientious and caring approach will be missed. We wish both Emma and her husband James, all the very best on their next journey as parents.

We are extremely fortunate to welcome Mrs Judith Hayman to our team for the remainder of the term. Judith is a very well respected teacher in our school. She is already well known to our Tipu children and has a good understanding of how we are working in our team. Judith will take over Emma's responsibilities and the Tipu 4 Home Room on Monday 27th March.

An appointment for the remaining year is currently being formally confirmed. Once this process is complete we will notify all of our Tipu whānau.

Kind regards,
Trudy Miles
