

ASHGROVE SCHOOL PERSON SPECIFICATION

We have a special team at Ashgrove. We are looking for people who have a strong commitment to a collaborative approach to teaching and learning. Ashgrove has a school-wide learning model that includes our school vision and values with a focus on developing well rounded students who are confident, creative and collaborative.

The successful applicant of this position must be able to provide supporting evidence, through referee's reports, or specific evidence of the following personal characteristics.

- A clear, well-formed philosophy of teaching which you can articulate / communicate and demonstrate in action in your teaching.
- The ability to meet or exceed the requirements of the relevant standards for the teaching profession.
- Be able to demonstrate successful teaching techniques which engage students.
- The ability to form positive relationships with students, staff, parents and whānau.
- High standards of honesty and professional integrity.
- Be an appropriate role model within the school and the community.
- Work collaboratively within a professional team, listening and contributing.
- Keep up-to-date professionally and actively participate in professional learning.
- Support and participate in school events outside normal school hours.
- Integrate and use elearning tools effectively.

